

Write an ALP to swap the contents of two 10-byte arrays in memory. The first array is stored at location with label `ARR1`. The second array is stored at location with label `ARR2`.

Use Model Tiny